Staff Impression Omri 12930

Omri is a captivating individual, boasting a unique blend of qualities. His introverted nature is complemented by a warm and kind personality, which he effortlessly conveys through his radiant smile. This winning combination draws others in, making him a natural connector. His Kinesiology background has honed his ability to engage with people and showcase his positive attitude. Omri's physical presence is equally impressive, with a strong, athletic build and a square-shaped face that frames his bright, contagious smile. His eyes are kind and inviting, with a deep brown hue and wide set, oval shape.

In his free time, Omri explores various creative outlets, including architectural design, animation, and fantasy book enthusiasm. Inspired by his mother's love for HGTV and iconic architect Zaha Hadid, he aspires to design his sculpture and delve into animation for children, fueled by his fondness for Disney classics. With his artistic spirit, goal-oriented mindset, and multiple talents, we are thrilled to have Omri participating in our program!
