

Staff Impression Decatur 14492

Decatur is kindhearted, attractive, and easygoing! His velvet, chestnut brown eyes are large, and downturned that shine next to the warm undertones in his skin. He is friendly and his captivating eyes only add to this trait. His charm is reflected in his style as well, with a short business-style haircut and sporting athletic wear. Decatur is physically strong, with a large stature and broad shoulders, accentuated by his long legs. Decatur's demeanor is confident, being very direct with a deep, smooth voice. He is quite a heartthrob, personable, and a conversationalist!

Decatur's career in fitness management is very telling about his personality and values. In a career where navigating many people's needs, physically and mentally, Decatur demonstrates empathy and discipline. His coaching and desire to participate in team sports show how invested he is in learning how to improve his strategies personally and for the people who rely on him. This is also demonstrated by his interest in reading books written by other great coaches in history. Decatur loves his career and the impact he has on the people he meets. Decatur's softheartedness stems from his love for his family, which is of the utmost importance to him. He is close with them, speaks with his mother every day, and dedicates his life to his son. His ability to be there for his family is what he holds dear. In his own words, he knows a family who used a donor program and he hopes to share this happiness with other families too!
